With regard to the elements of the international application (Replacement sheets which have been furnished to the receiving Office in response to an invitation under Article 14 are referred to in this report as "originally filed" and are not annexed to this report since they do not contain amendments (Rules 70.16 and 70.17)):

Description, pages:

1-33 as originally filed

Claims, No.:

1-10 as originally filed

2. With regard to the language, all the elements marked above were available or furnished to this Authority in the language in which the international application was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

These elements were available or furnished to this Authority in the following language: , which is:

- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of the international search (under Rule 23.1(b)).
- ☐ the language of publication of the international application (under Rule 48.3(b)).
- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rule 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

- ☐ contained in the international application in written form.
- ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.
- ☐ The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.
- ☐ The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished.

4. The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

- ☐ the description, pages:
- ☐ the claims, Nos.:

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No. PCT/US00/17649

(Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report.)

6. Additional observations, if necessary:

V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Yes: Claims 1-10
	No: Claims
Inventive step (IS)	Yes: Claims 1-10
	No: Claims
Industrial applicability (IA)	Yes: Claims 1-10
	No: Claims

2. Citations and explanations
see separate sheet

VIII. Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:
see separate sheet

V. Reasoned statement under Rule 66(2)(a)(ii) PCT (N, IS, IA)

1. Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: DE-A-19 643 281

D2: WO99/14300

2. Novelty (Article 33(2) PCT)

- 2.1 The application is novel since no prior art has been found that describes the subject-matter of the claims and thus no objections regarding novelty will be raised under Article 33(2) PCT.

3. Inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT)

- 3.1 The problem that the Applicant wishes to solve is to prepare a fabric care composition which reduces the loss of fabric color and provides enhanced fabric appearance benefits.
- 3.2 The proposed solution is to prepare a composition which comprises a water soluble modified polyamine in combination with an oligomer derived from the reaction between imidazole and epihalohydrin.
- 3.3 Document D1 relates to detergent compositions which attempt to improve the appearance and integrity benefits of the fabrics laundered therewith (cf. D1 page 1 first paragraph). The proposed solution is to use a composition which comprises cyclic amine based polymers.
- 3.4 Document D2 relates to compositions which attempt to inhibit color transfer between the fabrics being washed (cf. D2 page 1 lines 17-19). The proposed solution was to prepare a composition which comprises polycationic condensation products, preferably those which are achieved with a reaction with piperazine and/or imidazole together with epihalohydrin (cf. page 1 lines 20-60).

- 3.5 No document has been found which relates to the specific water-soluble polyamine which is specified in claim 1 of the present application. The man skilled in the art would not have any indication that the polyamines specified in the present application would, in combination with the imidazole/epihalohydrin oligomers, solve the specified problem.

The subject-matter of claims 1-10 is considered to involve an inventive step.

VIII. Certain observations on the international application (clarity)

1. There is a discrepancy between claim 2 and the description; the claim specifies that X is a water soluble anion and in the description it is specified to be a cation (see page 15) (Article 6 PCT).
2. Claim 2 lacks support of the description in that the molecular weight of the oligomers is not disclosed therein (Article 6 PCT).
3. The same objection applies mutatis mutandis to claim 9.
4. Claim 5 is not fully supported by the description in that the amounts of moles of polyalkylene polyamine and the amount by weight of the reaction product of polyalkylene oxide are not specified therein (see page 12). A further discrepancy is that the polyamine obtained is very specifically identified in the description and this is not the case in the claim (Article 6 PCT).
5. Although claims 1 and 6 have been drafted as separate independent claims, they appear to relate effectively to the same subject-matter and to differ from each other only with regard to the further additives which may optionally be added to the composition. The aforementioned claims therefore lack conciseness. Moreover, lack of clarity of the claims as a whole arises, since the plurality of independent claims makes it difficult, if not impossible, to determine the matter for which protection is sought, and places an undue burden on others seeking to establish the extent of the protection.

Hence, claims 1 and 6 do not meet the requirements of Article 6 PCT.

10. Claim 10 is not supported by the description. In the description a fabric care composition is disclosed which does not comprise surfactants and in the claim a laundry detergent composition is disclosed which comprises at least 0.01 wt.% surfactant. If the composition defined in claim 10 comprises a high amount of surfactant then the amount of fabric enhancing and transition metal-comprising dye protection polymers will be present in very low amounts and it is not certain if this low amount will achieve the desired effect (Article 6 PCT).
